

Kayak More Tomorrow – Setting the Standard in the Outdoor Industry!

SELF-GUIDED SEA KAYAK TOURING

SEA KAYAK TOURING

Norway, located in the Arctic; its fjord-indented coastline runs along these formidable seas, the North Sea, the Norwegian Sea (North Atlantic) and the Arctic Ocean. These oceans bear conditions that are ever changing, multifarious, challenging and at times treacherous. People have died paddling Norway's coastal waters! Therefore, anyone planning to paddle these waters should be concerned with receiving the best, most accurate and comprehensive information possible; this should be your main consideration when choosing an outfitter.

Sea Kayaking is inherently dangerous and in the rapidly changing conditions of the North Atlantic - well it goes without saying that knowledge and experience are big safety factors.

Kayak More Tomorrow has amassed the most in-depth information on paddling Norwegian coastal waters, period. No other company or organization even comes close. Our outfitting program provides you with the most compressive, detailed information on your chosen route, including but not limited to, route details, camping sites, emergency take-outs, fresh water & groceries, current climatic conditions, sea state, tides & currents, tips and recommendations based on our extensive experience paddling Norwegian waterways. Everything you need for a fun, safe, paddle along Norway's majestic coastline.

OUTFIT YOU SELF-GUIDED SEA KAYAK TRIP WITH KMT

For sea kayak rentals from 2 days and longer - Kayak More Tomorrow's Outfitting Service!

Planning a sea kayak trip - whether for a few hours or a few weeks - requires information! Where do you go? What's a good route? Where are the best campsites? What about currents? What to wear, what to bring, etc. This is where Kayak More Tomorrow comes in!

Outfitting Service

We have provided comprehensive route information and outfitted self-guided sea kayakers for over 2 decades along Norway's coastal waters; we are your best choice for a hassle-free self-guided sea kayak trip in Norway.

WHAT SETS US APART FROM ALL OTHERS!

The most important aspect of your trip is of course your safety; therefore, included in the price of all outfitting services is our comprehensive route information and on-trip support. The cornerstone to your trip's success is our thorough pre-trip briefing prior to you pushing off the beach.

When you arrive at your departure location in Norway our sea kayak outfitting guide will hold an in-depth (2-3 hour) briefing on the following:

- the route – plot out the entire route in detail on a set of maps
- camp sites – with GPS coordinates
- fresh water access
- grocery resupplies
- climatic and sea conditions
- Potential hazard areas; how to manage them
- tide and current chart with local tips and information
- weather forecasts
- paddling with the local tides and currents
- seamanship and paddle safe information
- equipment usage and packing

Acknowledgement: the price of all Kayak More Tomorrow 's Outfitting is based on all participants completing (to KMT's satisfaction) and signing Kayak More Tomorrow Outfitting Client Details – Term & Conditions – Wavier, Release & Indemnity.
